

In the tradition of the great travelling clowns of Europe, Frank Ozo charms and entralls children of all ages with his hilarious antics and cheeky wit.

His Italian heritage is evident in his comedic style clowning and modern Punch and Judy skits.

There's lots of variety to keep the attention of the young audience and music underscores a lot of the show. With a name like Mezmo, this clown knows heaps of magic.

He tears up his newspaper into smaller and smaller pieces because it is too big to handle, but when he realizes it is now too small to read, he magically restores it back. His empty hat is full of things and his empty hat box is full of hats. Things float in the air and appear and disappear.

Whether juggling balls, scarves or hats, making objects appear or disappear, trying to put on his coat that has a mind of its own or playing with puppets, Frank plays it for laughs.
